If there are any prayers, confessions, thanksgivings or other petitions you would like to make to Christ, there are pieces of paper, writing things and envelopes to seal them in, and tacks to attach them to the cross. I will burn these on Holy Saturday, without reading them. This would be between you and God alone. We believe that on the cross, Jesus bore our sins, our infirmities, our suffering and our wounds. All these we can offer him in this tangible way and know that he has taken the burden of them from us and redeemed us.

On Good Friday, there is no formal dismissal or recession. You are welcome to stay and pray or to leave whenever you wish. Please leave in silence in respect for those who wish to pray

Please return the passion booklets as they do not belong to us and must be returned.

Easter Sunday, April 17 8:00 am, Holy Communion (BCP)

Send down your abundant blessing, Lord, upon your people, who have devoutly recalled the death of your Son in the sure and certain hope of the resurrection. Grant them pardon; bring them comfort. May their faith grow stronger and their eternal salvation be assured. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you, because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world
