Inspirational Quote: We say yes to so many things. And sometimes, we say yes to the very thing for which we have been destined from all eternity. When we say yes to God, our yes echoes that of Mary, and like her, we become God-bearers. -Br. James Koester

Notices

Congratulations to those who were elected to offices in the church at our Annual Meeting. Cécile Leverman is our new secretary and Wendy Graham was re-elected as Treasurer. Allen Johnson, Sarah Durnford and Joe and Sharon Ledger were elected as members at large. Thanks to them and to all who are continuing on Parish council. We will be commissioning all of them next Sunday, March 13.

Lenten Study: will be taking place after the mid-week service. It's not too late to join if you are interested. Please speak to Rev. Michelle.

Lenten Mid-Week Services: This year our theme for these is to explore some of the people who took part in the events of Jesus' last few days. The homilies will be by members of the Spiritual Development Team. This week we will be hearing about St. Peter from Betty Bowdridge.

Women's Ministry Sunday: Today we recognize the ministry of women in the church. Of course, this was more significant back in the day when women's ministry was all done behind the scenes. Women have always been an integral part of the church, as have men. It is good to have a balance and be able to use the gifts of all our members.

PWRDF: During Lent we will be raising money for the Primate's Fund Climate Action program. You will see some information handouts in your bulletin and learn more with our display. The hearts and boxes are available for you to collect money, plus we have offering envelopes. Don't forget to put your envelope number on them. We are aiming at raising at $1500.00.

The PWRDF also has a Lenten reflection series you can subscribe to by email on this theme. Go to <https://pwrdf.org/lent2022/> to read more about it and subscribe.
