Inspirational Quote

Remember that your weakness doesn’t disqualify you from God’s love, but instead opens the way for God to act in and through you. Let your failures of your fears remind you of your need to rely on God for all things. God’s strength is made perfect in your weakness.
Br. David Vryhof, SSJE

Diocesan ACW: The Diocesan ACW is transitioning to a new group, as they found the way they'd been doing things was no longer sustainable. They are remaking themselves as APP: Anglicans Powering Potential. This will be open to all, including all genders, and will become a mini-foundation to enhance the capacity for creative ministry in our parishes.

Parish List: We are updating the parish list this week. If you are not on the parish list and would like to be, please give us your contact information (name, address, phone number). If any of these things have changed, please give us the updated contact information. Also, if you would like to give us your cell number as well as your landline, that would be helpful. If you are not receiving the email I send each Sunday and would like to, please give me your email address. Thanks!

Taizé Service: We are introducing this next Sunday. These services were developed at a very popular monastery in France where a lot of young people liked to go on pilgrimage. The services are quiet and contemplative, candlelit, with meditative chanting, some Scripture reading and prayers. This might be a good thing to invite someone to.

Celebration of New Ministry: We are all invited to the celebration of new ministry with Rev. Arran Thorpe and St. Peter's, Birch Cove. It's on Monday, April 24, at 7 pm.

Baptism: We are having a baptism on Sunday, June 11. We will have a service of Admission of Catechumens, that is, people entering into the preparation and teaching for baptism, on Sunday, May 7. Between May 7 and June 11, the candidates and their families and sponsors will have some classes and learn about baptism, the church and our life in Christ. If you would like to be baptised or if you would like your child to be baptised, please speak to Rev. Michelle and Liz Mahoney before May 7. I ask everyone in the congregation to pray for those preparing for baptism.

Messy Church: Our next Messy Church is Saturday, May 6, 4-6 pm. If you are coming, please let us know. These have been really fun for the kids and their families, and they are learning all sorts of good things about their faith. If you have kids in your family, do consider coming.

Active Hope Workshop: Rev. Charles is offering a workshop for all those who care about the earth and are looking for some hope and ways we can make a difference:

ACTIVE HOPE: Facing the Climate Crisis Together

We hear about the climate crisis all the time these days. Yet for many of us it can feel like one thing too many. “I just can’t think about that right now. And what can I do about it anyway?” This program is about a realistic hope that can help us discover the joy of joining with those who are acting for the sake of Life on Earth. We will explore our soul connection with the natural world and reflect on how our Christian faith supports us in making a difference for God’s creation. Come and bring a friend. All are welcome.

Date: Saturday May 13, 2023
