Notices

Welcome Back: to Hope Moen, who is playing the organ for us today while Rebecca is on holiday. Thanks so much, Hope.

Annual General Meeting: This will take place after the 10 am service next week, in the church. You may bring a bag lunch if you wish to do so. The reports are ready for you this week. If you signed up to have one, please pick one up and don't forget to bring it next week. We will not be reading the reports and so on at the meeting, so please read them ahead of time.

Ash Wednesday is on March 2 this year (on Wednesday!). We will have services in the morning and evening so you can begin Lent in the traditional way, with the service of penitence and the Imposition of Ashes, reminding us of our mortality. This allows us to prepare our hearts, minds and souls for Holy Week and Easter.

Lenten Study: This year's Lenten Study will be based on the SSJE Brothers' program It's Time to.... Stop, Pray, Work, Play & Love. This includes a daily very short video delivered to your inbox, a workbook which we will provide and a discussion group after the mid-week service. If you wish to participate, please subscribe to the videos at <https://www.ssje.org/time/> Half way down the page there is a subscription button. Please start it for Sunday, February 27

Diocesan Prayer Resource: This might interest some of you. It's on zoom. Pray as You Can: We can, and do, encounter God in the everyday activities of our lives. Join us for a new 4-part "Pray As You Can" series where we'll explore how the ordinary actions of mending, walking, gardening and bread making can be a prayer. Mondays, February 28, March 7, 14 & 21, 6:30 - 8 pm Atlantic. For the Zoom link or more information email prayasyoucan3@gmail.com

ACW Lenten Reflections: will be on zoom on Saturday, March 19 from 2 - 3:30. Reflections by AST postulants for ordination. More information from the ACW or on the Anglican Net News. All welcome
