Inspirational Quote Ordinary

The majesty of the Prologue of John, or the poignancy of the Foot Washing at the Last Supper, or the beauty of the Psalms are not to be missed. However, there is more to Scripture than majesty, poignancy and beauty. There is also the ordinary routine of daily living. It is there, in the ordinary routine of daily living, that God can be found as well.

Br. James Koester, SSJE

Notices

Lent: Lent begins this week, with Ash Wednesday. We will have two services that day, at 11 and 7. Then for the rest of Lent, starting March 2, we will have a 10:30am Eucharist on Thursdays, followed by Bible Study. We will also be starting our annual PWRDF appeal.

Bible Study: Following the Thursday communion service, about 11:15 am, led by Avon Fancy.

Topic: The Old Testament: Why do we Read it?

March 2: Overview: Putting it all in Perspective

March 9: What does Matthew do with the Old Testament?

March 16: What does John do with the Old Testament?

March 23: What does Paul do with the Old Testament?

March 30: What does Luke do with the Old Testament?

Annual General Meeting: Notice is hereby given of our Annual General Meeting, to be held after the 10 am service on Sunday, March 5, in the hall. Please bring a bag lunch. If you want a printed copy of the Annual Report, please sign the list in the narthex. Otherwise, we will have a copy emailed to you. In order to be legal, we will call the meeting to order Feb. 26 and then adjourn to the next Sunday! Tip from Ann Turner.

Out of the Cold: We are still collecting items for Out of the Cold. Thanks for your help.

Newcomers Group: We will be meeting on Tuesday evenings at 7 pm, beginning Tuesday, February 28. The first night we'll do some getting to know you activities and see what your questions are and then tackle the Anglican worship service: what we do, why we do it, which books we use, how to juggle them, and so on. Everyone is welcome. You don't have to be new to our church.

Lenten Resources: If you're looking for some resources for Lent, there are lots of options. Our library has a number of excellent books. There are daily studies available online that come to your email. The SSJE brothers have a number, and I have workbooks for some of them. PWRDF has one. And other groups, both Anglican and other. If you're looking for something, feel free to speak to me for some ideas. Rev. Michelle

Lenten Quiet Day: We will be having a quiet day during Lent. We are branching out in a new way this year. The day will be held at the Seton Spirituality Centre in Terence Bay and our retreat leaders will be Rev. Frances Drolet-Smith and Heather Carter. Both have led a number of prayer retreats and other prayer activities. This will be a day to refresh and renew our spirits. There will be a cost to this day to cover lunch, snacks and so on, but we're not sure what yet. More details to follow. There is a limit of 9 people who can go besides the leaders. If you're interested, please sign up in the narthex.
